

November 4, 2007

ANNOUNCEMENT:

The Los Angeles City/County Native American Indian Commission has created the Indian Commission - Fire Emergency Fund to assist American Indian families impacted by the recent fires in the southern California area.

The Indian Commission - Fire Emergency Fund is seeking monetary donations or gift cards from major grocery chains (like Ralph's, Vons, and Albertsons) for American Indian families that are victims of the recent fires. Los Angeles City/County Native American Indian Commission has established the Indian Commission-Fire Emergency Fund to assist American Indian families and to provide greater accountability of all funds donated. The Indian Commission-Fire Emergency Fund will insure that 100% of all funds donated will be provided to Indian families. Please send all donations to:

Indian Commission-Fire Emergency Fund
3175 W. 6th Street, Los Angeles, Ca. 90020

Or you may contact Ron Andrade, Director of the Indian Commission at (213) 351-5308

All donations made to the Fire Emergency Fund are tax deductible.