

CALIFORNIA Fair ELECTIONS CAMPAIGN

"The Change that Will Make All Other Changes Possible"

Greeting Clean Money Supporters

Our SCV Clean Money for Better Government Committee that was so active during the Prop 89 campaign is re-organizing to bring information and education to Santa Clarita about the upcoming "Fair Elections" proposition. The bill was signed by Governor Schwarzenegger last year and will be on the June, 2010 ballot. If passed, Fair Elections will create a pilot program that will allow anyone running for the Secretary of State's seat to run using only public money. The California Fair Elections Campaign is a non-partisan coalition sponsored by former 38th Assembly District leader Dr. Keith Richman, SCOPE (the Santa Clarita Organization for Planning and the Environment), CA and SCV Clean Money, Common Cause, the CNA, the League of Women Voters and Golden State Job Coalition.

To launch our SCV Fair Elections Committee efforts we will be co-hosting a

Campaign Kick-off!* (help wanted - see below)
