After a grueling three weeks of questioning, it is confirmed today that the 111th Justice of the distinguished Supreme Court of the United States of America, nominated by Barack Obama (the 44th President of the United States and the 1st African American) is Sonia Sotomayor.

Sotomayor is the first Hispanic, the third woman, and the youngest member at 55 years of age . . .

The count was 68-31 with most Republicans voting no!

This is indeed the change we can believe in!

Congratulations Lady!

May our hispanic brothers and sisters remember this when they go to the polls. Yes, after she served our country, with seventeen years on the bench, Sessions and his ilk of conservative right-wing friends in the Republican Party, didn't believe she was "good enough".

Nine Republicans and two Independents considered her a moderate and cast their votes for her. She will replace retiring Justice David Souter, a liberal named by former President George H. W. Bush. Sotomayor is not expected to alter the court's ideological split.

May our sista's and brotha's in the Hispanic political family remember . . . always . . . Cesar Chavez must be smiling down at us.

Best wishes to her and her family members . . .
