L.A. Police Protective League Endorses Headington for 38th Assembly District

The influential Los Angeles Police Protective League (LAPPL) has endorsed candidate Edward Headington to replace Assemblyman Cameron Smyth in the 38th Assembly District Seat. Smyth is vacating the seat due to term limits.

"Edward Headington has demonstrated a firm understanding of public safety and what state lawmakers need to do in order to keep our communities safe," said LAPPL president Tyler Izen, a resident of the 38th Assembly District. "Headington recognizes the importance of prioritizing public safety, and as a police officer, I trust him to be a champion of public safety in the legislature."

- Santa Susana
- Saugus
- Simi Valley
- Stevenson Ranch
- Valencia
- Val Verde

With Hart School Board Member Paul Strickland @ AD38 Candidate Forum

With L.A. Mayor Richard Riordan @ Los Angeles City Hall circa 1997

The LAPPL consists of more than 9,000 rank and file police officers serving in the L.A. Police Department, many of whom reside and raise families in the 38th Assembly District.

"It is an honor to receive the support of an organization that represents thousands of brave men and women who keep our families safe and put their lives at risk for us every day," said Headington. "I am proud to stand for improving public safety, and I am committed to putting politics aside in order to address the serious public safety challenges confronting the 38th district."

Headington, a small business owner, continues to pick up support from

With L.A. City Councilman member Mitch Englander

organizations that traditionally have gone to Republican candidates in this district, including former L.A. Mayor and CA Education Secretary Richard Riordan and L.A. City

With the late Dr. Keith Richman @ Coro Southern California circa 2007

Councilmember Mitch Englander—who was a top aide to the late Assemblyman Keith Richman, a Republican who represented the 38th District prior to Smyth. Like the LAPPL, both Riordan and Englander supported Smyth and Richman campaigns over the years.

Headington continues to support the law enforcement community in a variety of ways:

- LAPD Mission Area Police Station, volunteer
- LAPD S.O.L.I.D. Devonshire, booster
- LAPD Operations Valley Bureau Community Police Academy, participant
- LAPPL Eagle & Badge Foundation, donor
- CHP 11-99 Foundation, donor
- Simi Valley Police Foundation, member
- SCV Sheriff's Foundation,

donor
