AFL-CIO Presidential Forum – MSNBC

Whenever a Democratic debate turns to questions of national security and foreign affairs, the most frequently heard answer is "Well, I agree with Joe."

That shows good judgment. Most people who dig deep into public policy and national security issues end up agreeing with Senator Joseph Biden.

In this tumultuous world he is simply the wisest, most seasoned person to lead our nation.

When Pakistani President Musharraf declared martial law, it was Joe Biden who called him and read him the riot act, before President Bush got around to picking up the phone. Joe is Chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. He has 35 years in the Senate. He has put forward the only workable plan to stabilize Iraq. Put your finger on any hot spot on the globe. Joe Biden has been there and done that.

And Joe Biden can win. A tough critic* sized him up this way: "Fast on his feet, muscularly partisan... at a time when Democrats are prone to pulling punches, he knows how to throw them." Remember the punch he clobbered Giuliani with: "A noun, a verb, and 9/11." Toe to toe with Rudy or Mitt, other Democrats may survive, but this smarter tougher older brother will win.

The caucuses are still wide open. Iowans are finally getting a good look at Joe Biden, and more and more of us are liking what we see. Please, decide how much it's worth to you to give your country the strongest, most seasoned leadership. Then write that number on a check and mail it to "Biden for President." Better yet, go to www.JoeBiden.com and give as much as you can. Your gift will help Joe run strong. If Joe runs strong, what happens in Iowa won't stay in Iowa, and America will get the President we need.
