

Jonathan Kraut is a former college professor at the American Institute, Phoenix, AZ. and Dean of Justice Studies Capitol Training Institute, Albuquerque, New Mexico.

He has contributed to the development and support of new legislation in several states that pertain to justice, incarceration, rehabilitation and criminal law. As a state licensed private investigator and president of a local private investigations and employment screening firm, Jonathan is called upon as an expert witness in criminal cases and is asked to make sentencing recommendations.

He has authored a book on habitual criminal behavior and rehabilitation programs for several County agencies, "Ending The Abuse Before It Starts"... A Profiler's Guide to Preventing and Ending Unwanted Behavior.

Jonathan is also past President of the Democratic Club of Santa Clarita and the current Treasurer. He was the 2004 State Senatorial Candidate for the 17th District, but currently serves in non-partisan roles on the Santa Clarita Human Relations Forum, College of the Canyons Measure M Committee, and is Vice President of the Santa Clarita Valley Interfaith Council.