

MATT HENDRICKSON, MD, MPH.,

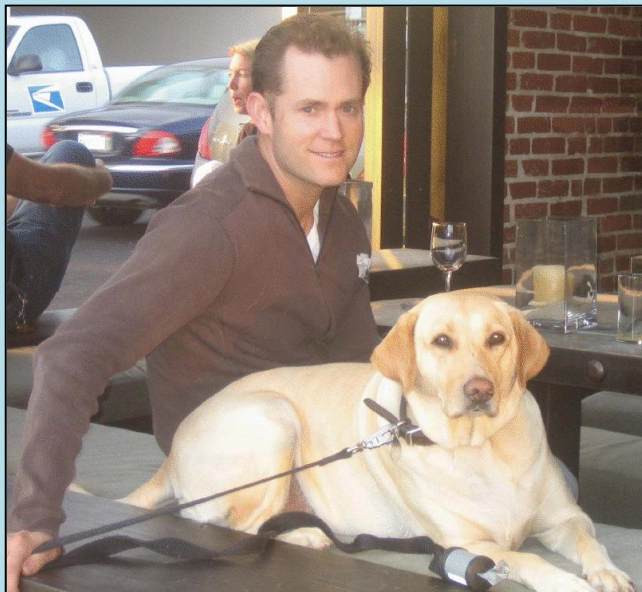

.Matt Hendrickson graduated from Brown University in 1987 and Emory Medical School in 1992.

He completed his Emergency Medicine residency at Harbor-UCLA in 1995 and obtained his MPH from UCLA in 2004.

Matt has practiced Emergency Medicine for 14 years, the first 9 at Cedars-Sinai, the last 5 at St Agnes Medical Center in Fresno.

He is a member of Physicians for a National Health Program (PNHP) for 3 years, this year Matt helped found the Los Angeles Chapter of PNHP.

He and his wife also created the single payer internet forum www.LASinglePayer.org

He lives in Santa Monica, California with his wife, 2 children, and Emma, his yellow labrador (pictured here).

