NO NUKES!!! SAN ONOFRE'S CRITICAL SHUT-DOWN MOMENT---

The two remaining reactors at San Onofre---Units 2 & 3---have been shut for almost a year. This is our critical moment to close them forever. Core technical problems have compromised steam generators that must never be allowed to operate again. Because financial issues are at stake, this is a rare moment where state agencies---especially the Public Utilities Commission---can make the difference. Time is short but our power in this situation is unprecedented. The permanent closure of these reactors would make southern California a vastly safer place, with major economic opportunities for the Solartopian shift to renewables, efficiency and conservation, revolutionizing the regional economy. This is a truly unique moment in our history---let's act now to make the most of it!!

Life-long peace/No Nukes/social justice/election protection activist Harvey Wasserman edits www.nukefree.org and has been fighting for a Solartopian future since 1973. In 1984 he was arrested at the Diablo Canyon nuclear plant and is now focusing his efforts on shutting America's remaining 104 reactors---including San Onofre Units 2 & 3--- and ushering in a era free of atomic power. Wasserman has authored and co-authored a dozen books and helped coin the terms "No Nukes" and "Solartopia". He has served as senior advisor to Greenpeace USA and the Nuclear Information & Resources Service. He has spoken to scores of rallies, citizen groups, media outlets and school groups, and in 1994 addressed 350,000 semi-conscious rock fans at Woodstock 2. He is overjoyed to find himself in Southern California in January, where his new grandson is about to turn one year old.
