

California Primary (Voter Contact)

As we enter what is perhaps the most important presidential election in our nation's history, we need to ask ourselves:

- ✚ Where will the candidates need to appear to speak about their plans for the future of our nation?
- ✚ What primary will play a very significant role in electing the next President of the United States?

The answer that comes to mind: CALIFORNIA!

With the nation's largest state now having their primary on Super Tuesday, it is now befitting to all of the candidates to come to a forum where their ideas and message will not be limited to a 60 second sound bite and get lost in the shuffle. The Los Angeles Urban Policy Roundtable for the past four years has been one of L.A.'s African-American community's leading weekly public issues forums. Top local and state policy makers, newsmakers, opinion leaders in politics, business, education and criminal justice will present their views on a range of issues and policy questions. Community activists, residents, and local community leaders regularly attend the roundtables. We extensively promote the Roundtables in the local black press and the presentations are taped and air on L.A. Channel 36 Cable TV. The Roundtable president and facilitator is author, syndicated columnist and political analyst Earl Ofari Hutchinson (pictured below). The Black and Latino vote is crucial to your campaign's success in the California Primary race. Our roundtable will give the candidates vital media, community and voter exposure.

We formally extend an invitation to you to setup a Roundtable date and time of your choosing. We will also host a VIP reception for you before the roundtable. In addition to Lucy Florence, we also have access to other venues to hold a forum such as the California African American Museum where 300-400 voters can be accommodated very comfortably along with the media. Our nation's next leader couldn't be more relevant! Please feel free to contact

Dr. Hutchinson @ 323-296-6331 or Pedro Baez @ 310-539-5044

We look forward to hearing from you.
