Statewide CTA 'Pink Friday' Event Against Teacher Pink Slips And Classroom Cuts Is Tied to Deadline for Educator Layoff Notices Ventura is joining a statewide groundswell of alarm over public school cuts, educators from Ventura County will stand up for schools and students with a protest on March 13 against the local impacts of more than $11.6 billion in state budget education funding cuts. "The new state budget makes what is the largest single budget cut ever made to public education in California," said Teri Roots, president of the Ventura Classified Employees Association. "Our state already ranks 47th in education funding. These new cuts will impact an entire generation of children and escalate California's race to the bottom in education funding." The event here is part of the California Teachers Association's statewide "Pink Friday" day of protest, so named because Friday, March 13, is the deadline for school districts to issue preliminary pink slips to educators. For more information about the statewide protests, go to www.PinkFriday09.org.

The Ventura Classified Employees Association is affiliated with the 340,000-member CTA and the 3.2 million-member National Education Association.
