

WINOGRAD for CONGRESS!

Dear Friends & Supporters:

I invite you to join me next

Monday, May 11th, at 4:00 PM

Washington Blvd. and Ocean Front Walk/Boardwalk)
Kick-off the Winograd4Congress 2010 Race

to unseat "This conversation does not exist" Jane Harman.

Do park on Washington Blvd., a side-street, or in the pier parking lot ($5.00). For those who want to avoid parking fees, meet up at 3:30 pm sharp with members of the Westside Progressives at St. Bede's Church in Mar Vista. Carpool from there. Please come to the Venice (not Santa Monica!) Pier and bring friends to show your support for a grassroots movement for change in the 36th Assembly District.

Enough of Harman's support for wiretapping and perpetual war.

Let there be a new day in Congress, a day when the needs of the people for jobs, health care, and housing come before the interests of the corporations and banks.

Together, we can make this happen!

Please RSVP winograd4congress.com

if you can make it and spread the word among friends, bloggers, and possible endorsers. Thank you so much for your support.

Best wishes,

Marcy Winograd Winograd4congress.com

Founder of the Los Angeles Chapter of Progressive Democrats of America. Marcy Winograd garnered 38% of the 2006 June primary vote when she ran as a peace candidate challenging Jane Harman in California's 36th Congressional District. Daniel Ellsberg, Gore Vidal, Dolores Huerta, Helen Caldicott and Ron Kovic all endorsed Winograd's grassroots campaign to unseat the entrenched incumbent. While serving on the Executive Board of the California Democratic Party, Winograd championed Out of Iraq resolutions and worked to create a Progressive Caucus within the state party. Under the direction of Cesar Chavez, Winograd worked as a legal worker for the United Farm Workers Union

Later, as a radio broadcaster, she served as News Director at KPFK. Winograd currently teaches English at Crenshaw High School in South Los Angeles, where she hosts literary cafes for young poets and works to promote teacher collaboration and college-going culture.
