Friday at 6:30 p.m., join Assemblymember Paul Krekorian and hundreds of others for a

FREE FILM FESTIVAL

Come screen 17 award-winning short films to an audience of those from across Southern California. New additions to the 2009 iteration include a mobile classroom before the event -- where the general public can learn about filmmaking -- and a red-carpet for filmmakers as they approach the theatre's gate. Dozens of paparazzi will snap photos, creating a glitzy effect for all those involved. Free tickets and open to the public
