"Norman Solomon is One of the Most Important Anti-War Peace Activists in the United States". - Frank Dorrel

Norman Solomon is a strong progressive candidate for Congress -- and he needs your help now, as his grassroots campaign gains momentum for what will be an open seat in the congressional district that includes Marin and Sonoma counties. Please support the campaign at this critical juncture.

The mainstream press in the district treats Norman as a frontrunner, since he's so well-known, well-respected and well-organized. Though he's never held elective office, Norman can win this seat just as activist Donna Edwards won her Congressional seat in 2008. This district is perfect for Norman's peace and justice politics.

Norman Solomon is a local activist, national columnist and award-winning author of a dozen books - including 'War Made Easy', which was turned into a powerful documentary film. He played a prominent role in the movement to prevent the 2003 invasion of Iraq. He has led fact-finding missions to Iraq and Afghanistan - and has appeared regularly on TV and radio, from CNN and MSNBC to PBS's News Hour and NPR's All Things Considered. His columns have run in the New York Times, L.A. Times, Washington Post, as well as Common Dreams, Truthout and AlterNet. His first book in 1982, 'Killing Our Own', exposed nuclear risks.

He was a co-founder of FAIR.
