..Taste of the Americas Experience is not the typical banquet at a downtown chain hotel. Instead, SVREP donors will purchase tickets to a more intimate food "Experience" featuring four competing Latino owned LA-area restaurants serving different cuisines from Latin America (held in the historic heart of the city at Union Station across from Olvera St.).

Only 350 tickets will be sold for this showcase of "alta cocina latinoamericana" that will be judged by a panel of celebrities . The winner will be recognized in local print and electronic media.
