

WWW.NAACP.ORG

NAACP

This has been a difficult year for many families.

With unemployment rates at record highs, the NAACP has put together a national effort to provide better economic opportunities for all Americans.

If you or someone you know is looking for a job or interested in a new career, don't miss the NAACP Regional Diversity Job Fair, coming to the Los Angeles Convention Center next week in conjunction with our annual Convention.

The job fairs provide a great opportunity to meet face-to-face with companies that are hiring and looking for experienced candidates. Employers are seeking candidates with experience and interest in sales, engineering, government, security, education, military, medical, banking, financial services, and more. Come out and meet the employers:

NAACP Regional Diversity Job Fair

Tuesday, July 26
12:00pm – 6:00pm

Wednesday, July 27
10:00AM - 4:00PM

Los Angeles Convention Center
1201 S Figueroa St
Los Angeles, CA 90015

There will be specialized pavilions offering careers in Education, Entertainment, Technology, Finance, Government, Healthcare, Retail, & more. The Diversity TalentFair is free and open to everyone regardless of race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, gender, etc.

So tidy up your resume, bring plenty of copies and get ready to jump into gear with a new career! For more information, visit http://www.psijobfair.com/losangeles_07262011.aspx or call (952) 595-4496, ext. 115

Sincerely,

Dedrick Muhammad, Senior Director
NAACP Economic Programs

PS: If you can't make it in person, be sure to browse listings at our online job finder:
<http://www.naacpjobfinder.com>