

As Barbara says,

Its Party Time!

Champagne "WEBCAST" Brunch for

Honorable
Barbara Boxer

"in real time and answering questions"

Saturday, September 12th, 2009

10:30 AM to Noon

Howard and Marcia Schneider

19440 Itasca Street, Northridge, CA

(818) 426- 8763

Please call or email and let us know you can make it.

Senator Boxer will be talking with house party guests across California — via webcast the morning of September 12. We will be able to email questions during the party, and Senator Boxer will answer as many as she can, in real-time.

We've got lots of Boxer stuff- bumper stickers, window signs, pins, and of course - Boxer shorts.

Looking forward to seeing you Saturday.

Marcia and Howard

PS. This election is far from a slam dunk - - Carly Fiorina, whose rocky tenure as chief executive of Hewlett Packard ended with her firing, filed paperwork and is making serious preparations to run next year for the Republican nomination to challenge U.S. Sen. Barbara Boxer - She is hiring top gun political consultants and managers. Never mind that The San Francisco Chronicle reported Fiorina didn't bother to vote in 13 of the last 18 elections.

Honorable LIVE Webcast: Saturday,
Barbara Boxer September 12, 2009
