Thursday, September 15, 2011, The Democratic Club of the Santa Clarita Valley is hosting "Dinner and Dialogue with Dr. Lee C. Rogers", who is one of the candidates for the 25th Congressional District running against the incumbent Howard P. "Buck" McKeon. Doors open 6:30PM; Program begins at 7:00PM sharp!

The event will take place at El Chaparral Restaurant 19132 Soledad Canyon Rd, Canyon Country, next to Bank of America in the Food for Less shopping center.

"Dr. Rogers is a podiatrist and the medical director of the Amputation Prevention Center at Valley Presbyterian Hospital in Van Nuys, CA. He is a published author and speaker on research and health policy. Dr. Rogers recently left a national position with the American Diabetes Association directing education and advocacy in preventing amputations in diabetes", according to his campaign site <http://www.leerogers2012.com/> Dr. Rogers will be introduced by the Democratic Regional Director, Darren Parker, who recently ran for the highly contested 17th Senatorial District.

The community event will require a minimum $15 "by your own audacity meal". Come meet other inquiring minds and have an opportunity to ask questions. Candidate donations are encouraged. This is a public event, free parking, and wheelchair accessible. Visit www.scvdems.org or call Minerva L. Williams at (661) 295-9318
