

LACoFD - DEL VALLE REGIONAL TRAINING CTR

The Los Angeles County Fire Department regional training center is equipped with state of the art props on 160 acres located off Highway 126 five miles west of Interstate 5 in Valencia. The property provides ideal conditions for firefighters and first responders to train and prepare for major incidents.

This CERT drill at the training center is the first of its kind and provides a unique opportunity for CERT trained members to work with highly skilled firefighters of the Los Angeles County Fire Department.
