Contributions are not tax deductible. Pedro Nava for Attorney General 2010 may accept contributions of up to $6,500 for the primary election and $6,500 for the general election and you may make a single contribution of $13,000 at this time. Spouses and domestic partners may each contribute the maximum, even if their account is controlled by the same person, as long as they both sign the check, credit card authorization form, or accompanying letter. We may not deposit your check or credit card payment without your name, street address, occupation and employer, and may not accept cash, cashiers checks or money orders. A business and its owner, partnerships with the same general partner, and other affiliated entities are subject to a single, combined limit of $6,500 per election. We may not accept contributions, which have been reimbursed by another person unless you inform us of the true source of the contribution.
