

Dear Grandmothers and Others for Peace:

Sunday, November 1, 2009

3:00 pm to 4:00 pm

Will the likelihood of a cooler afternoon bring you out Sunday?

Surely you are still concerned about our military involvement in Afghanistan. And though we are pulling out of Iraq, today's news of 147 people killed in a double bombing in Baghdad reminds us we are a long way from "Peace".

Please join us next at the corner of McBean Parkway and Valencia Boulevard as we remind our fellow Santa Claritans that we continue to work and pray for peace.
