

SPIRITED POLITICAL CONVERSATIONS

Wednesday
November 7, 2007
7:00 P.M. until—

How often do you have the opportunity to talk about the local, the state, the federal, and international politics with folks on the other side of the aisle?

When did you experience a Spirited Political Conversations of like or dislike minds discussing the present and future of the political landscape. Current School Board , Water Board and City Council candidates strongly encouraged to attend.

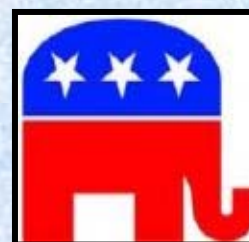

This is a way of relaxing, meeting and discussing or catching up on today's current events. There are No rules, No agenda, No entry fee, No membership and No specific topic. Bring a friend, political ally or family member. Share an article, blog, magazine, news article or interesting e-blast.

We share our delicious appetizers.

However, you buy your own dinner and a drink. "Undecided" and "Decline to state" warmly welcomed. Come out and join us before the holiday season starts!
