

Phone Bank Extravaganza 11/18 (Organizing)

That's right, Obamaites, it's a Phone Bank Extravaganza! Or as I like to call it, Phone Bankaganza.

November is a month of IDing voters by phone to help us target our efforts. Therefore, we will be holding two phone banks a week this month. This week, the first is on the 14th and the second on the 18th. Please join us with your cell phones for one or both of them!

In addition, we will have WiFi internet access, so please bring your laptops as well. Let's show voters why Barack's our candidate!

Hope to see you Sunday!

Thanks,
