Good news, a poll in IOWA today, shows Barack Obama with a 4% point lead in Iowa – Obama 30%, Clinton 26% and Edwards 22%. Our trajectory is going in the right direction. Check:

With that news, you are invited to “mission possible” – we need you to go to Iowa or Nevada to help out with our efforts there. We will win this campaign, but we won't do it without your help. Here are the trips & the goals.

Nevada Trips: Dec. 14 – 16 & Dec. 27-Jan. 2, Goal: 4 people from each CD.

The NV trips offer a great opportunity for new folks to be trained in grassroots organizing tactics and we strongly encourage newbies to take advantage of this opportunity. For Nevada, please email names to: Menno Goedman at mgoedman@barackobama.com

Iowa Trip: Dec. 26 – January 4, Goal: 4 people from each CD

We know these are big asks, but as you know, a lot is riding on this. We are moving in the right direction in the early states and victories here will help us tremendously in California. For Iowa, please email names to: Edith Ramirez at eramirez@barackobama.com.

Enough about Iowa and Nevada, let's talk about California! For those of you in Northern California, we had a FANTASTIC, FABULOUS event on Wednesday. We packed the Bill Graham Civic Auditorium with supporters, who all contributed $30 to help support the campaign. Here's a recent clip:

Obama '2008

THIS WEEK'S PRIORITIES: Give thanks to your family, friends and your community. Get back on the phones after Thanks Giving and get through the universe we're calling – you can do it! Get folks committed to Nevada and Iowa and get those names to your RFO/RFD/Menno/or me. Finally, due to the Holiday this week, there will be no call tomorrow. The Tuesday state-wide call will resume next Tuesday.

WE ARE GOING TO WIN!
