Marcy Winograd is a leading voice in the Progressive Caucus of the California Democratic Party, having just co-authored resolutions to end the US occupation and air war in Afghanistan, ban new oil drilling off the California coast, and cap national interest rates for predatory bank loans. Marcy, a founder of Progressive Democrats of America's LA chapter, is challenging Blue Dog corporate Democrat Jane Harman in the 36th congressional district, a 30-mile stretch that starts in West Los Angeles and ends at the harbor in San Pedro.

While Harman votes for perpetual war and occupation, trillion-dollar bank bail-outs, drug company monopolies on exorbitant breast cancer medication, the Patriot Act, and a bankruptcy bill that punishes the sick and injured, Winograd is working to promote universal single-payer health care, jobs in the new Green economy, and relevant education that will prepare our youth to lead us into the future.

Please join us to meet Marcy and learn more about how she plans to work with the Congressional Progressive Caucus to build a national progressive movement.
