

Dear Grandmothers & Others for Peace,
HAPPY HOLIDAYS

Next Sunday, December 11

3:00p.m.-4:00 p.m.

We will again meet at the corner of Valencia Blvd. & McBean Parkway to vigil, reminding our fellow Santa Claritians that Peace is worth working for.

Little did we realize that our actions in Afghanistan would add so many names to the list of U.S military killed in senseless wars. In fact, we were high in hope that the war in Iraq might somehow be diminished and that our government might begin to look for alternatives to this senseless killing. But here we are almost at the start of a new year. Hope you will join!!

Peace, Patty
