

Thursday, DECEMBER 15, 2011

Dinner and Dialogue

“Peace in Israel and Palestine:
The New Foreign Policy for 2012??”

6:30PM Meet & Greet; 7:00PM Program begins

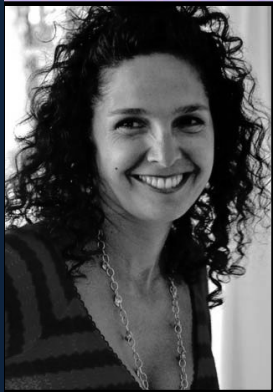

PURPOSE: To educate, to create understanding and to facilitate Peace in Israel

PROF. HAMOUD SALHI, (Emceeding)
Associate Professor, California State University,
Dominguez Hills

GARY RATNER, StandWithUs, Presenting the Zionist Position

ESTEE CHANDLER, Jewish Voice for Peace, Presenting Jewish Voice for Peace

SAMI BISHARA MASHNEY, R Ph, Esq, Presenting Palestinian Peace Position

El Chaparral Mexican Restaurant, 19132 Soledad Canyon Rd, Santa Clarita, Canyon Country area, cross streets Soledad Canyon Road/Whites Canyon Road.
Restaurant Eastside of Food for Less parking lot, next to Bank of the America.

First meet stellar guests who work towards the hope of Peace in Israel. The dialogue is about a government by and for all the people in the country. Hear a Zionist, a Jewish Peace Voice, and a Palestinian/Catholic Voice, and neutral facilitator on what are the activities for Peace in Israel.

Answering: How does the Peace effort effects us here in the US and will Israel affect the 2012 elections?

MUSIC: Israeli/Arabic Music by various artists.

Dinner choices will be taken by the restaurant staff as soon as audience members arrive.

ADMITTANCE: All audience members will purchase and pay for their own meals. A club rep will sign in all guests. Wheelchair and physical assistance provided. A $10 + donation (check or money order) to the club and/or the Santa Clarita Valley Homeless Shelter is appreciated. The parking is free.

Courteous exchange of ideas between guests and attendees expected.

Visit websites for past collaborations: <http://www.scvyoungdems.org> "Photos/Videos section"

<http://www.scvdems.org>. Minerva Williams, Todd L. Hoover, Ed Villalpando, Mary Jane Wagner, Rosemarie Sanchez-Fraser and DJ Reggie CCC, Event Coordinators, SCV Communicators for the Democratic Clubs of the SCV RSVP's (661) 295-3918 or email: minwilli@gmail.com

Restaurant directions only (661) 252-5599; Website: presidentrestaurant.com