Saturday, April 30, 2011; 3pm - 4:45 pm
Sacramento Convention Center, Rm 306/307

The election for the Progressive Caucus' new Executive Board will take place early in the meeting. To see candidate statements, visit our Candidate's Webpage.

In addition, we have important bylaws amendments which deal directly with the elections and the make-up of the Board. The amendments shall be decided together under one up or down vote. Your participation on this item is very important. Proposed language for adoption can be found here.

Of course, we hope to get past the 'nuts and bolts' of the meeting in good time so we can feature other issues which are important to Progressive Caucus members. Our agenda, so far:

Scott Warren, Vice-Chair, Placer County Democratic Party: A resolution calling on the Progressive Caucus to Draft a Workers Bill of Rights. Download a pdf version here.

Trent Lange, President, California Clean Money Campaign: The California Disclose Act - the bill that will help us fight back against the unlimited anonymous corporate spending unleashed by the Supreme Court's devastating Citizens United decision by disclosing who really pays for political ads. To learn more and sign a supporting petition, check out their website:

Rebecca Griffin, Political Director, Peace Action West, and Lead Action Coordinator for the Progressive Caucus' Foreign Policy Committee: With the July withdrawal date for Afghanistan coming up and the Pentagon pushing for a minimal approach, what can we do to continue the pushback?

Norman Solomon, Co-Chair, Progressive Caucus Foreign Policy Committee, and candidate for Congress:

"From Cairo to Madison - People, Power and Change:
The Fight for Democracy."

Dinner and Conversation with
Bill Fletcher Jr., Norman Solomon and Hussam Ayloush

We know that while the reasons for discontent among the people in the Middle East are different from the struggle of our brothers and sisters in the Midwest, the common thread connecting it all is the fight for democracy, for self determinism, for social justice and dignity. Here in California, we are going through our own budget crisis and of course, it's working people who are paying the price.

What are the next steps in what appears to be a growing and increasingly global peoples' movement?

WHERE: The Crest Café, 1017 K Street, Sacramento, CA
