

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA GLADIATORS

The Southern California Gladiators Professional Minor League Football Team has an immediate opening in its arts department. The Gladiators are a professional minor league football team based out of Orange County California. The Southern California Gladiators were founded in the fall of 2009.

The mission, "To foster a sense of community and brotherhood while promoting the game of football globally amongst all ages and create opportunities for young people to grow, mature and become better citizens of this country through participation in athletic competition." They are the newest members of the LCFL, which will showcase three conferences.

The official team colors of the Gladiators are brown and orange. The official team logo is an ancient roman gladiator. The coaching and support staff of the Gladiators are all professionals in their particular areas of expertise.

The Southern California Gladiators organization plans to bring to Fred Kelly Stadium, the city of Orange, Orange County and surrounding cities; exposure, a large fan base, a professional image, competitive spirit, accountability, and respect.
